NGAUS is the nation's oldest military association. Militia officers formed it in 1878 to obtain better equipment and training by petitioning Congress for more resources. Today, with a membership of 45,000 Guard officers, NGAUS continues that mission in support of nearly 464,000 current Guard men and women, as well as their families, employers and all Guard retirees.

NGAUS members provide the backbone and guidance NGAUS needs as it ensures the National Guard receives the best and latest equipment; maintains readiness through comprehensive personnel initiatives; receives proper missions as part of the Total Force; and fights for equitable retirement programs that give Guardsmen the support they have earned. Commissioned officers and warrant officers of the Army and Air National Guard are eligible for NGAUS membership. Historically, nearly all eligible Guard officers have paid their dues and belonged to NGAUS.

The strength of NGAUS has been its united membership. As the voice of the National Guard on Capitol Hill, NGAUS provides a path for National Guard men and women to elevate their local concerns to a national and influential audience in Washington, D.C. These are just a few of the important initiatives that NGAUS supports:

- Tricare for drill status Soldiers and Airmen
- Post 9/11 GI bill, modern dual use equipment
- Better Military Pay Compensation

2017 membership rates remain at 2016 levels (State/Federal assessments are due concurrently):
