NGAUS is the nation's oldest military association. Militia officers formed it in 1878 to obtain better equipment & training by petitioning Congress. Today with a membership of 45,000 Guard officers, NGAUS continues that mission in support of nearly 464,000 current Guard men & women, their families, employers and all Guard retirees.

Member Benefits

- National Guard Magazine subscription
- Free Accidental Death Insurance
- Legislative Alerts on Guard issues
- Special Discounts, Preferred Vision care
- Members-only Website access
- NGAUS Washington Report, weekly e-letter
- Write-to-Congress online tool

The strength of NGAUS has been its united membership. As the voice of the National Guard on Capitol Hill, NGAUS provides a path for National Guard men and women to elevate concerns directly to Congress.
